DOES THE BIBLE SANCTION SUCH A PRINCIPLE?

IX.

The giving of the law at Sinia immediately preceded the promulgation of that body of laws and institutions called the "Mosaic system." Over the gateway of that system, an inscription was written by the finger of God: "He that stealeth a man and selleth him or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death." Exodus 21. 16. When we consider the oppression of the Israelites in Egypt, and the wonders wrought for their deliverance, we shall appreciate the reason for proclaiming such a law at such a time—at the very outset of the system, when the body politic, with great solemnity resolved itself into a theocracy and reverently waited for the will of God. They had just been emancipated. The [illegible] of their house of bondage were the realities of yesterday, and [illegible] upon their memory with paralyzing horror. They had just witnessed God's testimony against oppression in the plagues of Egypt—the [illegible] blains on man and beast—the dust quickened into [illegible] in myriad [illegible] streets, [illegible] every [illegible] with the carcasses of [illegible] even the kneading [illegible] the secret chambers [illegible] reeking and dissolving [illegible] pestilence [illegible] darkness at noonday, the [illegible] locusts and hail mingled [illegible] the first born death struck, [illegible] waters blood, and last of all, [illegible] high hand and outstretched arm that whelmed the monarch [illegible] his host, and strewed their corpses on the sea. And this their eyes had [illegible] earth's proudest city [illegible] thunder-scarred, lying [illegible] and the doom of oppression [illegible] on her ruins in the hand [illegible] of God, glaring in letters of [illegible] with blood—a blackened [illegible] of wrath to the uttermost against the stealers of men. No wonder that such a God, in a code of laws prepared for such a people at such a time, should set upon the very threshold a blazing beacon to flash terror to slaveholders and warn them off—"He that stealeth a man and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, shall surely be put to death." God's cherubim and flaming sword guarding the entrance to the Mosaic system.—See also Deut. 24. 7. The Hebrew word Ganab here rendered steal [illegible] means the taking from another what is his, whether it be by [illegible] the same word is [illegible] commandment and [illegible] both protestant [illegible] include robbery under the prohibition of the commandment 'Thou shalt not steal.' The crime specified in the passage is that of depriving somebody of the ownership of a man. Who is this somebody. Is it [illegible] Is it the crime of depriving a master of his servant. Then it would have been "he that stealeth" a servant, not, he that "stealeth a man." If the crime had been that of taking an individual from another, then the term used would have been expressive of that relation, and most especially if it was the taking of an individual from another who was his [illegible]. The crime is stated in a [illegible] form, man stealing, selling, and holding. All are put on a level, and one penalty launched at the whole. [illegible] who is this something that is deprived of the ownership of a man? Is it the man himself, robbed of the ownership of his own person.—Joseph said to the butler and baker of Pharaoh, "Indeed I was stolen away out of the hand of the Hebrews."—Gen. 40.15. How stolen. His brethren took him and disposed of him as an article of merchandise. Well might he say "Indeed I was stolen." Contrast this penalty for man stealing with that for property stealing, which is given at length in the beginning of the next chapter. Exodus 22. If a man stole an ox and killed or sold it, he was to restore five oxen; if he had neither sold or killed it, the penalty was two oxen. The selling or killing virtually a deliberate repetition of the crime, the penalty was more than doubled. But in the case of stealing a man the whole power of punishment was expended upon the first act, however often repeated, or however aggravated the crime, human penalty could do no more. The fact that the penalty for man stealing was death, and the penalty for property stealing, whatever the kind, or however great the amount, was the mere restoration of double, shows that the two cases were adjudicated on totally different principles. The man stolen might be past labor, and consequently his support a burden, yet death was the penalty, though not a cent's worth of property value was taken. The penalty for stealing property, was a mere property penalty. The payment of double wiped thee out. The score, however, largest the amount stolen. Though it might have a greater money value than a thousand men, death was never the penalty, nor maiming, nor branding, nor even stripes. When all kinds of animals, or when money, furniture, goods, articles of clothing, or food were stolen, the unvarying penalty was double of the same kind. Why was not the rule uniform. When a man was stolen why not require the thief to restore double of the same kind—two men, or if he had sold him, five men. It is answered that the man thief might not have them. So the ox thief might not have two oxen, or if he had killed it, five. But if God permitted men to hold men as property equally with oxen, the man thief could get men with whom to pay the penalty, as well as the ox thief, oxen.—Further, the whole of the legal penalty when property was stolen, was a pecuniary remuneration to the person injured. But, when a man was stolen no property compensation was offered to the individual, or to the community. To tender money as an equivalent would have been to repeat the outrage with the intolerable aggravation of supreme insult and impiety. Compute the value of a man in money. Throw earth's dust into the scale against immortality. The law recoiled from such a mockery of man and blasphemy of God. To have permitted the man thief to expiate his crime by restoring double of the same kind, would have been making the repetition of crime its atonement, and exalting into a virtue the accursed thing against which the penalty was leveled. But the infliction of death for man stealing exacted from the guilty wretch the utmost possibility of reparation. It wrung from him, as he gave up the ghost, a testimony in blood, in death groans, to the infinite dignity and worth of man—a proclamation to the universe voiced in mortal agony that man is inviolable—a confession shrieked in phrenzy at the grave's mouth—"I die accursed, and God is just?" If God permitted man to hold man as property, why did he punish stealing of that kind of property infinitely more than for stealing any other kind of property.

Class No. 19—Discretionary.

In this class may be found the various articles on exhibition not enumerated in our Premium List.

Note—It shall be the duty of the Discretionary Committee to examine all such articles as shall be recommended to them by the Judges on the various other classes, together with those to which their attention may be directed by the numbered cards (No. 19,) on each, and also any article they may deem worthy of premium, which is not specified in our List. But in no case are they to make an award in any class unless their attention has first been called to it by the Judges of said Class.

DISCRETIONARY COMMITTEE.

John Barclay, (Raccoon) Robt. A Cunningham, (Brighton) James Brady, (Ohio tp.) Jos. Cunningham, North Sewickley) W. B. Reed, (Moon.)

3. All animals or articles must be on the grounds on Wednesday, September 24, that they may be arranged in readiness for examination by the Judges immediately thereafter. Articles may subsequently be offered for exhibition, but in no case will premiums be awarded on the second-day entries. All cards on such shall be marked second-day entries. The same article cannot be used to take two premiums.

6. No animal or article entered for premium can be removed until the close of the Fair, except by special permission. All stock, &c., on exhibition will be subjected to the order and direction of the Board of Managers.

7. In any instance where the Judges are not able to determine between any animals or articles in competition, they may award premiums to each animal or article.

8. Hay and straw for stock will be furnished, free of charge, and grain at cost price; and an abundance of water will be on the ground for all purposes.

9. No premiums will be paid until twenty days after the Fair, and all premiums sent for will be paid only on a written order to the Treasurer (William K. Boden,) to be retain by him as a voucher for the same.

10. A committee will direct as to the location of any article which may be placed on exhibition.

11. The Board of Managers will spare no pains to accommodate competitors in every class; every precaution will be taken for the safety of all articles on exhibition; but they will in no case be liable for any loss or damage that may occur.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JUDGES.

1. All Judges are required to report themselves at the stand at 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, September 24, or otherwise vacancies will be immediately filled up by the Board.—They will make full and detailed reports, and return them to the Secretary before 10 o'clock on Thursday.—Judges must confine themselves to the articles in the several departments, as set forth in the Premium List; when a worthy object is presented not properly belonging to their several departments, they are to refer it to the Discretionary Committee.

2. Judges will not award first rate premiums upon indifferent objects with little or no competition; but may award premiums of a lower grade or no premium, as they shall deem proper.

3. All Judges who are not members shall have tickets free of charge for dinner for one day.

4. Judges are requested to make a note of every article that comes before them, as the Board wish to make a full report, with the names of owners attached.

5. Judges will not award premiums upon articles or animals not enumerated in their own particular class; but such of the same as they think worthy, they will recommend to the attention of the Discretionary Committee.

6. If the article on exhibition has not a numbered card attached, the Judges shall take notice of the same.

7. Judges will in no case award a premium on any article the card on which is marked second-day entry.

8. No person will be permitted to act as Judge, if he or she be competing for a premium in the same class, or is in any way interested.

9. Judges will permit no persons to be present, or interfere in any way with them in their examinations.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Certificates of membership (one dollar each) gives all the privileges for the year, including the succeeding election, and admit to the Fair Grounds during the exhibition the head of families and children residing at home, except males over 21 years of age.—Tickets for single admission 25 cts.

2. The Board of Managers (which includes the officers) will be present on the Grounds, and will be pleased to give any information to competitors or others who may desire it.

3. All articles in the manufacturing or mechanical Department, must be made in the county, and within a period of one year previous to the Fair.

4. The Board of managers, may award premiums on articles, of special merit, from other counties and States.

5. Any person who may bring intoxicating liquors on the Fair Grounds, either to drink himself, sell or give away shall be expelled from the enclosure, and not be permitted to enter again.

6. Each horse or colt brought upon the grounds, (except those engaged in hauling articles to the Fair which shall not remain) will be taxed 15 cents each; a pair of horses (one owner) in harness or otherwise 25 cents.

7. All carriages, buggies, &c., used in the ring, must be driven outside of the Grounds immediately after training.

8. All carriages, wagons, or vehicles of any kind (except those coming under the foregoing provisions) must be entered, for competition, and have a numbered card placed thereon; none others will be admitted.

9. All persons having horses to exhibit or train in the ring, are required to show their certificate of membership, both at the stock gate and entrance to the ring.

10. The managers will have an auctioneer to sell any animals or article exhibited which the owners may wish to dispose of on the third day of the Fair.

11. The Secretary of the Society (A. G. M'Creary.) will receive entries for two weeks previous to the Fair, and would earnestly request all who can to make application before that time as it will prevent confusion and insure a more extended accommodation.

An address will be delivered from the stand at 2 o'clock p. m., on the third day of the Fair; the award of Premiums will be read immediately afterward.

In presenting the foregoing List of Premiums, the Board would invite an attentive and careful perusal, feeling that in variety and extent it is not surpassed; if equalled, by that of any other County Society in our State, the amount of Premiums offered [$1000] being higher than that of any previous year. We offer in many instances three grades of premiums (1st, 2d and 3d best) on the same article thereby increasing the chances for a premium, and affording a more extended competition. Taking these facts into consideration, the Board would cordially invite all to compete, hoping that we may have an exhibition that will prove alike creditable to our Association, and to the Agricultural interest of our County.

Sentiments of the National Army.

In advocating so earnestly and zealously, peace at any and all sacrifices, and by their fierce and malignant assaults on the National Administration, the copperheads of the North unwittingly have rendered invaluable service to the cause of the Union, enough so, almost to atone for the aid and comfort—they designed to afford and actually did give to the rebels. But for the blatant treason of the copperheads, their boasted agreement of their doctrines with the views entertained by our brave and gallant soldiers in the field might have remained unchallenged, and certainly uncontradicted. The bold and defiant libel has, however, forced itself upon the attention of the noble defenders of our flag, whose principles and patriotism have thus been assailed, by proclaiming to the world that they were tired of the war, and desired peace upon any terms. The soldiers have seen and heard the falsehoods and fully understand the teachings of those copperheads whom they well know to be even more wickedly hostility to this government than the Southern slaveholding rebels in arms.

In meetings of soldiers in their camps, in correspondence with the loyal press, and in letters to their friends at home, the earnest and heartfelt patriotism of our noble defenders are giving strong expression to their almost unanimous and ardent desire for a vigorous prosecution of the war until this internal rebellion is utterly subdued and forever extinguished. There can be no mistake as to the real sentiments of our brave and patriotic soldiers in relation to the war and its objects, else why in addition to their expressions do we find them in every battle field and in every skirmish and every contest, upon sea or upon land, so gallantly contending and fighting for the stars and stripes. Nor can there be any mistake as to the opinions they entertain of the miserable, craven hearted cowards, who to gain place and power or to gratify malignant hatred of our free government, traduce and vilify our heroic men battling for our institutions. It is true a few instances may be found of contemptible cowards who to hide their want of bravery and patriotism, under a false plea of sickness or something else return from our armies, and join the copperheads at the North in their false and slanderous expressions against the soldiers, but the number is very small, and they are men of no character or standing.

From the barracks and the hospital, from the camp and the field, arises a united voice of contempt of the copperheads and cowards, while from every glorious battle field, the heroic defenders of the Union hurl their curses deep and loud, at the traitorous crew who would barter away the very principles of national liberty and unity, for which these patriot soldiers bleed and die. When brave men thus speak as they do, face to face with the foe, the cowards and contemptible sneaks at home may well hide their heads, and tremble at the retribution, which surely awaits them. The day is fast approaching when our brave and heroic soldiers will as surely crush out copperheadism as they will Southern treason and rebellion. Some low dirty dogs, probably instigated by some leading copperhead, to make an assault upon some patriotic soldiers, had some slight foretaste of this; in Beaver, a few evenings ago.

Organize! Organize!!

The loyal Union men of Beaver County must begin the work and prepare for the second Tuesday of October. Both the State and County ticket are now in the field, and the issue is fairly made up. In a few weeks we will be called upon in the county and State to decide between loyalty and treason. Never before in the history of this country has their been an electoin of such vast importance.—Never before have such grave and vital issues been involved. A triumph for Woodward and Lowry would be a triumph for slavery and rebellion. A triumph for any one on the Butternut ticket in this county would be so far aiding traitors and treason. Our enemies will not openly assail the Union or the flag of our country. But they will resort to every falsehood and misrepresentation—they will appeal to the prejudice and passions and make all kinds of false promises that they may be enabled to carry out their treasonable purpose, and to array the people against the government. They will organize every where; nothing will be left undone in their efforts to carry out their treasonable and hellish designs. They have got the basest and most unscrupulous scoundrels and traitors to be found anywhere traversing the county and State, and whilst they are professing loyalty the are insiduously and treacherously working for the destruction of this great and good government.

Then what is the duty of every loyal man of this county and country? It is to organize—to work, and work earnestly, and work until the last vote is deposited in the ballot box on 2nd Tuesday of October. We must commence now—we must organize in every township and school district.—Let us know who are for the country, and who are against it. The time is short—our cause is just. Then, let every patriot do his duty.

Who are the Soldiers Friends?

As the Copperheads frequently desire to convey the impression that they are the especial friends of the Soldiers, we beg leave to call the attention of our readers to the following facts.

When the bill for raising money for paying our soldiers in the field was put upon its final passage in the United States House of Representation it received a vote of one hundred and fifty in favor to five against it. The names of those five members who voted against paying our brave troops were:

Clement L. Vallandigham, of Ohio, now in exile in Canada having been charged with complicity with the enemy.

Benjamin Wood, of New York, reelected Representative to Congress.

H. C. Burnett, of Kentucky, expoşed from the House of Representatives for treason, now in the rebel army.

Elijah H. Norton, of Missouri who ran away from his home, and now in the rebel army.

John W. Reid, of Missouri, expelled from the House of Representatives for treason, and now, or lately, in the rebel army.

Now we beg our readers to bear in mind that the Convention which nominated Woodward and Lowry, endorsed Vallandigham. Who ever, therefore, votes for Woodward and Lowry votes in effect to starve the Soldiers who are fighting for the Union! Let this fact be blistered into the faces of the copperhead leaders, and brand them with the infamy which they deserve. To be a copperhead is to be more than a traitor it is to be both a coward and a poltroon, in addition to being a traitor.

Who wishes to support the ticket of cowards, poltroons and traitors? If any man does, let him vote for Woodward and Lowry. But if, on the other hand, he wishes to array himself on the side of loyalty and Union. Then let him vote for Curtin and Agnew. Remember Curtin and Agnew means loyalty and Union!—Woodward and Lowry means cowardice and treason!

Butternut Convention.

The speaker at the Butternut convention, which was held in the Court House, in Beaver last week, denounced GOVERNOR CURTIN in vile terms for not having called out the Militia of the State a week sooner at the time when Lee's army threatened to invade our soil, whilst he knew in his heart that he and others, belonging to his crew, when the Governor did issue his proclamation calling for troops for State defence ridiculed the idea and declared that it was only a scare and that there was no danger of an invasion. He knew, too, that he used all his persuasion to prevent volunteering for the defence of our State. He also knew that he never indicated his own intention of volunteering to defend our firesides, and he knew he never would.

And yet still he had the cool brazen impudence to abuse and vilify Gov. CURTIN for not doing sooner what he (the speaker) had before declared should never have been done.

"Oh! shame, where is thy blush" and what seemed strange the delegates to that convention appeared to take all he said for the truth and the greater the lie the louder they cheered. This, however, may be accounted for by the fact—the more glaring the lie, the louder he called upon his Maker to witness the truth of what he was saying. Everything of this kind will be resorted to by the enemies of the government to deceive the people. Then let loyal men be prepared to meet them with the truth.

☞ Capt David Critchlow of Co, "C" 100 Regiment (Roundheads) and Surgeon Sherlock of the same regiment arrived at home last week, on a short leave of absence. They are both looking well. The service seems to agree with them better than with most men. Capt. Critchlow was one of the first to volunteer in this county on the breaking out of the rebellion. He has been in the service over two years and has uniformly discharged his duty as becomes a brave and efficient officer. We are reliably informed that he is regarded as one of the best officers in the service. He is a complete master of military tactics never hesitates in the performance of any duty and shrinks from no danger. He has seen much hard service with the regiment and it gives us pleasure to record his efficiency and bravery Doctor Sherlock now Surgeon of that Regiment was at one time Captain in the same Regiment having raised and taken into the service a company from Darlington, in this county. He went with his company to South Carolina and assisted in the capture of James Island and Port Royal. He was soon after prostrated with a fever peculiar to that climate and was compelled to resign. After recovering he again entered the service as Surgeon. As Captain he was beloved by his men and esteemed by his superiors for his efficiency and bravery As a Surgeon he is if possible even more popular all testifying to his skill and kind treatment of the sick.

Pennsylvania Nominations.

The Union State Convention met in Pittsburgh on the 5th inst., and nominated His Excellency Andrew G. Curtin for re-election, as Governor of Pennsylvania; and Hon. Daniel Agnew, Esq., of Beaver, for Judge of the Supreme Court.

Gov. Curtin is now a tried man.—He has proved himself to be adequate to the demands of the times; truly a patriot, most prompt and energetic in the raising of forces for the war, conservative of Pennsylvania's best interests, fearless in the discharge of duty, and untiring in his industry. Those who would urge the war efficiently, to the preservation of the Union and the enforcement of the laws, have good reason to confide in Governor Curtin.

With Judge Agnew we have no personal acquaintance; but we have satisfactory evidence that he is an able jurist and a man of great integrity.—Presbyterian Banner.

JUDGE AGNEW.—In the nomination of Judge Agnew, of Beaver county, as the Union candidate for Supreme Judge, the State Convention has given us a really first class man, well known in all the western portion of the State as a sound lawyer, learned, clear-headed, and eminently fitted for the highest judicial position. His election will be a valuable addition to the bench of the Supreme Court.

☞ For want of space we are unable to publish, this week, the report of the Secretay of the Ladies Aid Society, but it will appear next week.

JOINED THE NAVY.—The two sons of our much esteemed citizen, the Rev. Issac Sawyer, pastor of the Union Baptist Church, have recently joined the United States Navy. Mr. Edward H. Sawyer, lately a Captain in the merchant service, is now acting Ensign, and Mr. Isaac Sawyer, jr., is Master's Mate.—Pitts: Dispatch.

August 9th, 8163.

MR. G. C. SPEYERER.—Dear Sir—When I was at home in May last I promised to write you a letter on my return to my regiment, but since my return we have had pretty active times, and circumstances have occurred over which I had no control, is my only excuse for not writing sooner. I distributed the tobacco and cigars you sent to the company, and gave them each a good drink of the Old Peach Brandy, which all pronounced the best drink they had got since they left their noble Keystone State near two years ago; but a number of them since has been slain in battle and now fill a soldier's grave. On the 4th of July our Regiment, together with the others companing our Brigade, left Port Royal on Transports, bound for Folly Island, and got inside of Stono Inlet the same night about 10 o'clock, but could not get to land, and had to put to sea and lay all day Sunday out of sight of the enemy, and the same night came in again and at daylight Monday morning was all loaded on this Island. On Wednesday evening the 8th our Brigade was ordered to get in serf boats and row up back of Folly Island ready to attack the rebel batteries on the lower end of Morris Island the next morning at daylight; but owing to some mismanagement on the part of the Quartermaster a sufficient quantity of boats were not provided, and we had to postpone the expedition until the next night (Thursday), when we all got aboard, and with muffled oars proceeded to the foot of Morris Island where we arrived between daylight and sun-up, the next morning, the 10th about 800 or 1000 yards from the Rebel batteries. About ten minutes after our arrival, our batteries on the upper end of Folly Island opened upon the Rebel batteries, the first shot dismounting one of their guns and scaring them out of their tents like angry bees out of their hives. Little did they think until this time that Yankee foes were so nigh. After our land batteries had fired about an hour, our little Monitors came steaming slowly up and opened their fire in the Rebel rear, and shortly afterwards orders were given for the infantry to land and charge them in their Rifle pitts, which we done on the double-quick, amidst the roar of the deafening cannon, the waving of flags and the cheers and shouts of thousands of loyal hearts; putting them to flight and following them up to within 800 yards of Fort Wagner, when the Shells from this Fort and Fort Sumter stopped our further progress. We lay here all day and night on our arms, screening ourselves as best we could from the shells of the enemy until the next morning at 4 o'clock, when the whole Brigade was drawn up in line of battle to storm Fort Wagner. The 7th Connecticut was in the advance, the 76th Penn'a. next, and the rest in the order assigned them in battle. This being the third night we had done without sleep, and two nights and one day without any thing to eat, and fighting in the hot sun with the thermometer standing in the shade varying from 98 to 103 degrees, a great many of our men were completely exhausted; so that when our Regiment was drawn up in line of battle to storm the Fort on the morning of the 11th of July, we had but 357 men, and 206 of these were killed wounded and missing. General Gilmore in his official report to the War Department says our loss will not exceed 150, and that of the enemy will not fall short of 200. There is certainly some mistake in Gen. Gilmore's report, for the 7th Connecticut lost fully as many as we did, besides what the three other Regiments lost. If you look over the list of killed and wounded and missing in the papers you can see then who is nearest the truth. No other Brigade, save ours alone, done any fighting on Morris Island until the 18th of July, and to it belongs the honor of routing the enemy on the 10th of July and getting possession of at least three fourths of the Island; all, and no more of which do we hold to-day. Our Captain, John S. Littell has been in command of the 11th, and in the charge on the 18th, when three Brigades charged on it and when we were repulsed with a loss of 1200 hundred killed wounded and missing, nobly and fearlessly led it forward.—Our 2nd Lt. Wm. S. Morehead was put in command of company I, and bravely led it around. I was in command of our own company it company it could be called, for it then had been cut down to 11 men, two of whom (Robert Boak and George French) were from Rochester, Michael L. Anderson from Bridgewater, the rest from Pittsburg and Minersville, all which proved themselves every inch a soldier. In speaking of Captain Littell, of Hookstown, Beaver, co. I think it is due to him to say for his friends and acquaintances sake at least (if not for himself) that he is one of the bravest and most fearless men that ever led a Regiment or company into battle; and when I say so, I but express the opinion of all acquainted with him in this department of the army In the charge on Fort Wagner of the 18th we had the 54th Massachusetts (Colored) Regiment, and I see by some of the papers in the North that the impression is that they acted cowardly and had not done their duty. Col. Shaw of the 54th led it in advance of all our Regiment and when within 100 yards of the Fort gave the command, "Fix Bayonets, Forward; Double-quick; march," and when at the Fort at the top of his voice saying to his men, "onward my brave boys onward," over the ditch up on, to the parapet, and into the Fort itself they went and engaged the enemy in a hand-to-hand conflict.—Their loss on that occasion shows whether they wont fight. I saw them, therefore I believe they will fight as well as any white troops under the same circumstances. I was sent to the Hospital here on Folly Island the 22d of July, I am getting better and will join my Regiment tomorrow which has gone to Hilton Head with about one tenth of its original numbers fit for duty. But I have already written much more than I intended and must bring this letter to a close:

Oh! that this dreadful war was over; the sadness, sorrow and suffering I have seen makes the heart sick and is ever present to my mind.—Everywhere in society is to be found something to call to mind the great struggle. The marching of soldiers to martial music, the roar of cannon and rattle of musketry at drills and parades, the national uniform passing at every street corner, the sick, pale soldier or the limping, crippled ones, the hospital filled with the wrecks of the brave men disabled in their country's service, women dressed in the habiliments of woe, and silence and gloom filling faces where joy and meriment should dwell—these are the mementoes to be found at home in every community. God grant these things may soon have an end and that peace may be restored again which once blessed our once happy, but now distracted country.

Your Friend,
R. F. M'ILVAIN,
1st Lieut. 76th Penn'a Vols.

P. S. In reading over what I have written, I see that I have forgotten to say that Robert Purvis, of Rochester, was killed in the charge on Fort Wagoner, on the morning of the 11th of July, and that Albert Purvis was wounded at the same time, through the side; since which time I have not seen him and don't know whether he is in Hospital at Hilton Head, or gone North.

GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH.

A Family and an Agricultural Journal,

DEVOTED TO

CHOICE LITERATURE,

INCLUDING

Poetry, Novelettes, Tales,

AND MORAL AND ENTERTAINING READING GENERALLY.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal of magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28,00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2,50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months: a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

☞ No order will receive attention unless accomplished with the cash.

☞ Specimen numbers sent to applicants.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

The undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made officinal in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Compound Extract of Colocynth,

Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lupulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,

Citrate of Iron and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,

Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable; chalybeates,

Syrup of the Hypophosphites,

Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,

Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,

Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia: a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,

Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia: same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects.

Pyro-phosphate of Iron; soluble.

These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS

The combination of ingredients in these pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a premature grave. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND!
ALWAYS READY.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightly wounds.

SABRE CUTS AND GUNSHOT WOUNDS

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSNESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH. Therefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHEA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.
In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.
AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.
And Other
Nervous and Chronic Diseases.
EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care, and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closet, and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

For further particulars send for a circular. All communications should be addressed to.

FRIENDS AND RELATIVES OF THE
BRAVE SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
And Ointment.

ALL WHO have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take especial care that they be amply supplied with those Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS. Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER-FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all round it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Toothache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have and them to save their children from sympathetic suffering.

[illegible] and mechanics! you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of the teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read of Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. It is too late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. To be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they want them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing $7 cts for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail, but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,
